skiing cross country

scribbling the earth "1928 after one war and before another speeds" the country of Longing, the state of Have are the haunt of all philosophy it's getting awfully achy dreadful sorrow

Clementine. . . not to hope is forbidden the truck's parked at the fence

Sal Hepatica, cigarettes and cowboy coffee heels (as in louses) spur the posy papered wall buzzing critters delirium outside not to mention a million hot frogs wet the vista we need
